

Supporting Connecticut Children's Since 2011

December 8, 2023
or any day of the year

Raising funds, spirits and awareness for kids battling cancer.

Business and Sponsor Opportunities

Together, the possibilities are limitless.

Stand Together with Kids Fighting Cancer

Schools and business partners throughout Connecticut participate in PJ Day for the Kids by donating $1, or more, to wear PJs all day to support kids battling childhood cancer at Connecticut Children's. Funds benefit groundbreaking research, clinical trials, patient care and families fighting alongside their child.

Get Inspired

As a 2nd grader, Nick decided to do something to help kids like his baby sister, Charlotte, who was diagnosed with cancer at 21 days old. "From a young age, I witnessed her and so many other kids enduring grueling treatments. My sister and these brave kids inspired me to do something to help," said Nick Wesoloskie. Thanks to Nick, his family and the community, PJ Day is now recognized by the State of Connecticut as an official day of awareness and is the largest fundraiser for the Center for Cancer & Blood Disorders at Connecticut Children's.

$2,700,000 has been raised since 2011 for the Center for Cancer & Blood Disorders at Connecticut Children's in support of programs like:

CLINICAL TRIALS

Expanded clinical trial offerings require increased staffing.
New trials offered for sarcomas, leukemias and solid tumors.

RESEARCH

Focusing on new therapies with fewer side effects.

HELP FOR FAMILIES

Assisting families who are impacted by the financial burden of a cancer diagnosis.

TUMOR BIOREPOSITORY

Advancing the overall knowledge of childhood, adolescent and young adult cancers.

ONCOFERTILITY PROGRAM

Providing fertility counseling, education, and options available for fertility preservation.

The Opportunities

Align Your Brand With Our Cause

Become a Sponsor

If your business or employees can't wear PJs to work, or you simply want to support the mission of PJ Day and Connecticut Children's, please consider becoming a sponsor. Support from community partners, like you, will make a vital difference in the lives of children.

Participate as a Partner

Participating Partners register for an online team and ask their employees to make a gift of $1 or more to wear PJs. They also encourage donations from vendors and customers. More than 200 business partners across the region participate in PJ Day.

Company Donation Matching

When your business makes the commitment to match employee contributions in support of PJ Day, you have TWICE the impact for patients and families.
